

RFP 21-01
Computer Software, Licenses and Services
Addendum I

May 12, 2021

The following corrections, questions, and clarifications are provided concerning WSIPC RFP 21-01 Computer Software, Licenses and Services. Paraphrasing of the relevant questions posed to the WSIPC RFP Bid Contracts Administrator have been included as appropriate.

QUESTIONS AND CLARIFICATIONS:

Q1 – Does this solicitation include educational software/subscription that can be used by both teachers and students for different subject areas?

A1 – Yes

Q2 – Does this solicitation include non-instructional software?

A2 – WSIPC is not soliciting a particular software, license(s), or services; so, it could conceivably include non-instructional software. The RFP does not; however, include, any Microsoft Product(s), Skyward, Inc, Products or Public Consulting Group, Inc. (“PCG”) Products as stated in Section 1.1 General Invitation to Submit Bid Proposal.

Q3 – Are you looking for any specific software system with RFP 21-01?

A3 – WSIPC is not soliciting a particular software, license(s), or services. The RFP does not; however, include, any Microsoft Product(s), Skyward, Inc, Products or Public Consulting Group, Inc. (“PCG”) Products as stated in Section 1.1 General Invitation to Submit Bid Proposal.

Q4 – Can you provide examples of the types of evidence you would accept for this requirement? Would a confirmation letter from our CFO or CRO, for example, suffice?

A4 – WSIPC does not have a presentation requirement for submitting evidence of minimum sales as referenced in Section 3.3.2 Organizational Experience. A confirmation letter from your CFO and or CRO would be sufficient.
